CENTER FOR MINISTRY DEVELOPMENT CERTIFICATE IN YOUTH MINISTRY
offerings, Fall 2008

PRINCIPLES AND PRACTICES OF YOUTH MINISTRY

2 weekends, Saturday/Sunday, 9:00a.m. – 5:00p.m., September 27 & 28 and November 1 & 2, 2008.

PRINCIPLES OF YOUTH MINISTRY (September 27 & 28,) presents the foundational understandings and principles for developing an effective, comprehensive ministry with younger and older adolescents. It examines the dynamics of developing Catholic faith identity and practice. This course presents the vision and principles for comprehensive youth ministry and a model for youth ministry which incorporates developmentally-appropriate youth programming, strengthens family life, involves young people as integral members of the faith community, and collaborates with civic organizations in a common effort to promote positive youth development and faith growth. Don Boucher will be facilitating this weekend.

PRACTICES OF YOUTH MINISTRY (November 1 & 2,) explores the development of comprehensive youth ministry through the collaborative sharing of the resources in the community. Rooted in a theological and pastoral vision of community life, this course develops foundational understandings that will assist leaders in setting and implementing a vision for dynamic ministry with youth. This will include skills for advocacy, planning and organizing youth ministry efforts. Methods for collaborative leadership among ministries and within ministry teams will also be developed. Cheryl Tholcke will be facilitating this weekend.

Books will be distributed the first morning of class. Typically, book fees range between $50 and $65 a weekend.

The cost per weekend is $175. Room and board is not included. Fill out the form below and return it with a check (made payable to Loyola University) to:
