Reason for Application (Please check only one and be sure to review necessary items which must be submitted along with this form.)

- I applied to Loyola University within the last two years, but had an incomplete file. I wish to apply again.
- I am currently enrolled as a non-degree student and wish to apply to a certificate or degree program.
- I am currently enrolled and wish to apply to an additional certificate or degree program.
- I wish to change programs within Loyola University.
- I have recently graduated from a Loyola University graduate program and would like to return as a graduate-level non-degree seeking student or begin a new graduate degree program.

 Please submit a new Statement of Purpose with this form for any of the reasons listed above. Also, if you are now applying to a new or additional program, please visit <http://luc.edu/gpem> to find any additional documents that may be required for that program.

- I was admitted to Loyola University sometime during the last two years but did not enroll.
- I wish to re-apply to the program from which I was withdrawn.
- I stopped attending and wish to return.

 Please submit a Statement of Justification with this form for any of the reasons listed above.

- I have been denied admission to Loyola University during the last two years and wish to apply again.

 Applicants previously denied are not required, but are encouraged, to submit new or updated materials, such as test scores, letters of recommendation, statement of purpose, or resume that might provide new information for the reviewers. Unless you have completed additional coursework or have completed a degree, you do not need to resend previously submitted transcripts.

I hereby certify that the information given by me on this application is complete and accurate.
